

Varsities must be Innovative in Curriculum

— President Buhari at Unilag Convocation

The President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, Muhammadu Buhari, GCFR, has tasked Nigerian universities to be innovative in their approach to curriculum development and delivery. The President made the call during the 2016/2017 Convocation ceremony of the University of Lagos, which took place recently.

He also charged the universities to embark on strategic capacity building programmes, aimed at keeping faculty abreast of global trends in education to enable them to make appreciable impact in their various subject areas.

The President, who was represented by the Executive Secretary of the National Universities Commission (NUC), Professor Abubakar Adamu Rasheed, assured the convocation that the Federal Government, on its part, would reposition the nation's universities to deliver sound quality education.

He noted that, with 164 universities in Nigeria, it was imperative that they be repositioned to meet the goals for which they were established.

To effectively do this, however, the university Management and Governing Councils must play a pivotal role in the repositioning of these institutions.

Cognisant of the myriad of challenges bedeviling university education, such as expanding access without compromising on quality, poor infrastructure and facilities, governance, funding as well as quality assurance, among others, Mr. President assured Nigerians of his administration's determination to tackle and address these challenges.

He solicited the "cooperation of all Nigerian universities and all stakeholders, to join hands with the government as we take the Nigerian University System to a higher level, in our quest to accelerate Nigeria's transition from natural resource dependence to a knowledge-based economy, in line with the thrust of our change agenda.

To achieve the proposed reform of the Nigerian University System (NUS), President Buhari stated, the government had mandated the NUC to facilitate a comprehensive review of curricula in the system, to ensure that they reflect global best practices. He pledged his administration's commitment to the periodic review of the curricula, to ensure that they meet national needs, while remaining globally relevant.

SERVICOM, NUC Partner on Service Delivery in NUS

The National Coordinator and Chief Executive Officer, Service Compact with all Nigerians (SERVICOM), Mrs Nnenna Akajemeli, has called on the National Universities Commission (NUC) to partner with SERVICOM, in its efforts to check governance issues and other vices in the Nigerian University System (NUS), as a means of promoting service delivery in the system. Mrs Akajemeli made this call during a courtesy call on the Executive Secretary, NUC, Professor Abubakar Rasheed, on Friday, 17 May, 2018.

The National Coordinator noted the significance of students to the NUS and observed that it was important to remind the academia of the need to meet the expectations of their parents and/or guardians, by treating their charges right. She expressed delight at the

Executive Secretary, NUC, Prof. Abubakar A. Rasheed and National Coordinator and Chief Executive Officer, SERVICOM, Mrs Nnenna Akajemeli

Executive Secretary's experience in the NUS, which she described as "advantageous to the system." This experience, she said, ensured that the Executive Secretary could relate to the challenges associated with service delivery in Nigerian universities.

Mrs Akajemeli reminded the Executive Secretary of the Service Charter, a document which indicates services rendered by an organisation and as well as measurable standards in a Ministry, Department or Agency. The Charter is reviewed every two years, she said, adding that it was the responsibility of the NUC SERVICOM Nodal Officer to ensure the review. SERVICOM expected that universities would also implement and fast-track services as contained in their Service Charter, to ensure quality service delivery.

As a means of promoting service delivery in the system, the National Coordinator noted the need to carry out performance monitoring in the NUS. This could be done by sustaining the active network of focal officers in the universities. This network would help to guarantee improved access to service points and ensure that focal officers were held more accountable. Mrs. Akajemeli also proposed the idea of rewarding performing staff in the universities, adding that this would help to engender healthy competition among staff.

The National Coordinator solicited the Commission's partnership in curbing the menace of "sorting", which, she observed, had become a major challenge in the NUS. She observed the need to re-orient students to begin to believe in hard work and mooted the idea of engaging and deploying mystery shoppers in the universities, to check this menace as well as other vices in the NUS. She stated that SERVICOM was proposing to harvest all service delivery reports from the universities, for onward transmission to the NUC.

She further appealed to the Executive Secretary to facilitate a presentation by SERVICOM to the Committee of Vice-Chancellors (CVC), to solicit the Committee's support in driving service delivery in the system.

Welcoming the SERVICOM delegation, the Executive Secretary noted that the visit was apt, considering that NUC was in the process of reforming the NUS, adding that service delivery was key to reform.

Professor Rasheed stated that governance was built on two major pillars, accountability and transparency.

He acknowledged the need to hold universities accountable to the provisions of their Service Charter. He also noted the need to hold faculty and students responsible for any acts that contravene the provision of quality service and assured the team of NUC's commitment to improving service delivery in the NUS.

Professor Rasheed stated that Nigeria's challenges were more as a result of an erosion of moral values than religion or ethnicity. He assured the delegation that the NUC would explore means of making SERVICOM more relevant in the NUS.

The Executive Secretary informed the team that NUC would come up with a publication which would showcase incidences of student maltreatment in the NUS as well as publicise the efforts of well-performing staff in the universities.

A highlight of the meeting was the

Prof. Rasheed (middle) and Mrs. Akajemeli in a group photo with NUC Management and the SERVICOM delegation decoration of the Executive Secretary and the NUC SERVICOM Nodal Officers with the SERVICOM emblem, designating them as friends of SERVICOM, in recognition of their efforts towards ensuring proper service delivery in the system.

In a vote of thanks, NUC SERVICOM Nodal Officer, Mrs Adebukola Olatunji, expressed appreciation for the sagacity and proactivity of the Executive Secretary. She commended him for making time to attend the meeting, despite his busy schedule and expressed optimism at the prospects of collaborating with the Commission in improving service delivery in the NUS.

Unical Honours Emir of Borgu, two others with Honorary Degrees

The University of Calabar (UNICAL) has, at its 31st Convocation, honoured three prominent Nigerians with Honorary Doctorate Degrees, in recognition of their positive contributions to the society and particularly to the university in the last couple of years.

The honourees were Board Chairman of the Niger Delta Development Commission (NDDC), Senator Victor Ndoma-Egba; the Emir of Borgu Kingdom, Alhaji Muhammad Sani Haliru Kitoro and late Chief Michael Archibong.

While Senator Ndoma-Egba had contributed immensely to the growth of the University's Law Faculty, the Emir of Borgu Kingdom had fostered peace among traditional institutions across the country and the late Archibong would always be remembered for donating a clinical hostel to medical students of UNICAL in the early 80s.

Delivering an address on behalf of all the recipients, Senator Ndoma-Egba lamented the infrastructural decay in the university system, particularly public institutions, attributing it to poor funding.

The former Senate Leader therefore called on relevant authorities to improve the funding of the nation's universities, to equip them to deliver on their mandate of providing quality education.

Senator Ndoma-Egba noted that the funding of university education had consistently fallen short of the United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organisation's (UNESCO) benchmark, which recommends that 26 percent of the national budget be allocated to education.

"While we celebrate excellence", he said, "it is also an opportunity to reflect on certain issues of the moment, one of which is the state of university education in our country."

He assured the University management that he would liaise with other beneficiaries, to ensure that they contributed their quota to the development of UNICAL, in a bid to guarantee that it ranked among the best in the nation.

While Senator Ndoma-Egba was conferred with Doctor of Law (Honoris Causa), Barr. Muhammad Sani Haliru Kitoro IV was conferred with Doctor of Business Administration and late Chief Archibong was honoured with a posthumous Doctor of Business Administration award.

10th NELSON MANDELA WORLD HUMAN RIGHTS MOOT COURT COMPETITION,

PALAIS DES NATIONS, GENEVA, SWITZERLAND, 15 – 20 July 2018

Students from all universities in the world are invited to participate in the prestigious Nelson Mandela, World Human Rights Moot Court Competition in 2018. The year 2018 will not only mark the tenth year in the life of the competition, but it will also be an opportunity to celebrate the 70th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, and the 100th birthday of human rights icon Nelson Mandela. The final rounds will be held at the United Nations Headquarters in Geneva from 15 to 20 July.

Each year undergraduate and masters level students who wish to participate in the competition submit written legal arguments for the opposing sides in a fictional dispute involving some of the burning human rights issues of the day. The teams with the highest scores from each of the five UN regions are then invited to participate in the final oral rounds in the Human Rights Council Chamber in the Palais des Nations. The case is heard by a panel of eminent international jurists, including judges from international tribunals. Many participants have described participation in the moot as the highlight of their studies.

In 2018 the competition will for the first time be presented not only in English, but also in French. In future years the other UN languages, namely Spanish, Chinese, Russian and Arabic, will also be used.

The teams that are selected to participate in the final rounds in Geneva are expected to cover their own traveling costs as well as accommodation and meals, although limited financial assistance is available.

The last day for submission of memorials is 16 April 2018

International Network on Appropriate Technology (INAT)

Endogenous Knowledge, Appropriate Technology and Innovation: Linking the Past and the Future

The 8th International Conference on Appropriate Technology will

- 1) Promote Knowledge-based Endogenous Development and the diffusion of related innovations to support Appropriate Technology (AT) practice
- 2) Identify, initiate and combine AT contributions based on both pre-modern and modern knowledge in a manner that is rooted in an appropriate historical perspective
- 3) Provide a forum for networking on AT solutions for the 21st century through the recognition, valorization and re-appropriation of locally-grounded knowledge and practices

Background

Locally-grounded and useful knowledge, both tacit and codified, is one of the most reliable bases for long term, sustainable prosperity. Unfortunately, much of this knowledge remains under-recognized and undervalued, with tumkey solutions from elsewhere often being presented as readily available or convenient. At present, large numbers of people in the Global South, particularly in Africa, still lack access to clean water, sanitation, clean energy, reliable food and nutrition, and safe transportation, among other challenges. Yet in those same societies, some people have time-tested, demonstrable approaches to resolving them, while others are engaged in cutting-edge scientific research and technological development.

All of these, to the extent that they are informed by contextually-relevant needs, and priorities represent an endogenous knowledge resource base. However, refining, upgrading, applying and diffusing this knowledge in the form of improved products, services and practices also requires the dissemination of lessons and experiences between similarly motivated actors from a broad cross-section of any given society: In exploring various local challenges together from an Appropriate Technology perspective, we believe that we can contribute to a more plural, multi-centric, equitable, sustainable and ultimately more just global community.

NUC MAKES HISTORY IN RANKING OF OPEN EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES (OER)

The National Universities Commission has made history in conducting the first-ever ranking of Open Educational Resources (OER) held in institutional repositories. It is the first exercise of its kind in the world and it was initiated by the Executive Secretary of NUC, Professor Abubakar Rasheed, mni, MFR for application in the Nigerian University System. The exercise showed that with 12,070 quality OER holdings presented by 50 universities for the inaugural exercise, Nigerian Universities are now among the best in Africa in OER. It is estimated that with full release of the OER holdings and participation by all universities, this number may quadruple in the next two years making the Nigerian University system the richest in OER in Africa. The OER ranking exercise is to be conducted twice a year.

Open Educational Resources (OER) are teaching, learning and research materials in any medium, digital or otherwise, that reside in the public domain or have been released under an open license that permits no-cost access, use, adapt and redistribute by others with no or limited restrictions. They are technology-enabled, open provision of educational resources for consultation, use and adaptation by a community of users for non-commercial purposes. Materials that constitute OER include curriculum maps, course materials, textbooks, streaming videos, pictorial materials, multimedia applications, podcast, and any other materials that have been designed for use in teaching and learning environment.

The OER ranking exercise was conducted by the 12-member National Experts Group on OER Ranking (NEGOR) and a four-person team of external experts from outside Nigeria.

Fifty universities that participated in the inaugural edition were ranked by (a) ownership (federal, State and private) and (b) generation within ownership. The results are shown below.

NATIONAL UNIVERSITIES COMMISSION

ADVERTORIAL ON CONFIRMATION OF APPROVAL OF THE NIGERIAN UNIVERSITIES e-LEARNING PROGRAMME

The general public is hereby informed that whereas the Commission maintains its stand that online degrees are not accepted in Nigeria at the moment, this does not include the approved Nigerian Universities e-Learning Programme run within the shores of Nigeria.

The Nigerian Universities e-Learning Programme is a legitimate and well thought out pilot e-learning initiative. It is a Public Private Partnership between the National Universities Commission (NUC), Park Associates E-Learning Group, and four federal universities. Its goal is to provide new opportunities for students to access university education in Nigeria.

The four Participating Universities are:

- i. University of Uyo;
- ii. National Open University of Nigeria;
- iii. Usmanu Danfodiyo University, Sokoto; and
- iv. University of Maiduguri.

Students enrolled in the Programme can select any of the following undergraduate degree programmes: Economics, Banking & Finance, Accounting, Business Administration and Marketing for which they have requisite qualifications. The Programme for now is only available for candidates who wish to obtain BSc Degree in Economics.

The Commission wishes to use this medium to allay all fears and doubts concerning the legitimacy or NUC endorsement of the Nigerian Universities e-Learning Programme. This is one of the avenues that the National Universities Commission is exploring to increase access to university education without compromising quality. Students in the Programme are therefore advised to continue to pursue their studies without fear and prospective applicants are encouraged to enrol. Concerned parents, guardians, students and the general public may contact the Commission for further clarification on the Programme under reference.

The attention of the Management of the Tertiary Education Trust Fund (TETFund) is drawn to the mischievous activities of some unscrupulous elements that are visiting public Universities, Polytechnics and Colleges of Education and some regulatory agencies and presenting themselves as staff of, and working with, the Chairman-designate of the Board of Trustees of TETFund. They usually meet the head of an institution, the bursar and/or director of works/physical planning to make all sort of offers/promises of TETFund intervention projects to be allegedly brought to the institution by the Chairman-designate. In exchange, they make different frivolous requests including nominating contractors/consultants and, in many cases, request for financial gratifications.

NATIONAL UNIVERSITIES COMMISSION IPSAS IMPLEMENTATION

 Nexia
Agbo Abel & Co

Introduction:

The Federal Executives Council at its meeting held on 28th July 2010 approved that Nigeria should adopt the provisions of the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) and International Public Sector Accounting Standards (IPSAS) for Private and Public Sectors respectively.

Consequently, the Federation Accounts Standards Allocation Committee (FAAC) at its meeting held on 13th June 2011 setup a Sub-Committee to provide a roadmap for the implementation of IPSAS in the three tiers of government in Nigeria.

The Roadmap to the adoption of IPSAS was phased as follows:

- Full Adoption of IPSAS Cash effective from 1st January, 2014.
- Adoption of IPSAS Accrual effective from 1st January 2016.

The National Universities Commission (NUC) has commenced the IPSAS implementation project that will enable a seamless adoption of the IPSAS accrual in the preparation and presentation of Financial Statements in line with the directives of Federation Accounts Allocation Committee (FAAC) Sub-Committee on implementation of IPSAS.

Implementation Approach:

NUC is partnering with Nexia Agbo Abel & Co, to adopt a phased implementation approach which shall focus on the following areas;

- Regulatory Compliance
- Technical Accounting & Reporting
- Knowledge & Resource Management
- Process, Technology & Infrastructure

Expected Benefits:

At the end of this implementation project, NUC's financial reporting is expected to be fully IPSAS accrual compliant in line with the directive. This will ensure greater level of transparency, accountability and consistency in financial reporting just like similar Public Sector Entities (PSE), high-quality financial statements based on globally acceptable standards and audit efficiency.
