determination to ensure that education was revitalised in the country.

This he said was in line with government's awareness that education was germane to gaining access to global civilization in the 21st Century which Nigeria was also striving to be an active player.

President Buhari, lamented that despite the successes recorded in the last four years of his administration, Government was disturbed by the incessant strikes and threats of strike actions by the various university-based unions. While explaining that industrial action by way of strike was inexorably inimical to the health and progress of any university system, he noted that more sensitive in their pursuit and demands for improvement in the university system. It is only when there is peace and stability that the nation is able to consolidate the constraints and challenges in the university system and will leave no stone unturned to change the narrative", he said.

He applauded the effort of the management of ABU towards enhancing capacity through Distance Learning and affiliations with some Federal and State Colleges of Education as well as Polytechnics. This, he said, would help resolve the crises of access for candidates who desired to undertake university programmes outside the existing university's structures and catchment.

He noted with pride that the University had adequately key into the Federal Government's effort of revitalising and developing railway transportation in the Country through its collaboration

“Resilience and Dynamism in Folklore in the 21st Century.”

The Executive Secretary of NUC Professor Abubakar Adamu Rasheed, mni, MFR, FNAL, was represented by the Director Executive Secretary's office Mr. Christopher Maiyaki. Welcoming members of the Nigeria Folklore Society to NUC, he highlighted NUC's achievements since inception. He said that through NUC the country now has more universities adding that the commission has now come up with the first ever directory of the names of professors in Nigerian Universities.

He said that NUC had build a bridge between the academia and captains of industry and it had on entrepreneurship. The Benchmark for minimum Academic standard (BMAS) document had been shared out to relevant bodies for ideas and input. The Commission had also been involved in partnership with the NFS. The Executive Secretary underscored the importance of folklore in the development of any society. He concluded his speech by wishing the folklore society a successful conference.

In his address, the President of the Dr. Bukar Usman declared that the time was ripe for NUC and our tertiary institutions to give serious and urgent attention to developing a curricular of study to produce the required professionals who would get Nigeria to realize its potentials through documentation, curation

November 2018 stated that “with the inclusion of Nigerian Content in the animation film festival, it will create adequate employment and contribute to the growth and development of the nation's economy.” He added that “animation industry has a great role to play in shaping the minds of our children and instilling in them our diverse cultural heritage.”

Dr. Usman however thanked the Chief host, Prof. Rasheed the Executive Secretary of NUC who in his present capacity decided to re-enact the courtesies he extended to the NFS during his tenure as the Vice Chancellor, Bayero University, Kano (BUK). He said, that the credit of today's conference must be given to him and BUK housed the NFS national ‘development’, ‘preservation’ and ‘promotion’ of knowledge was made possible through our culture which was dynamic, hence the need to retain and preserve its original content in every phase of societal growth and development while adopting contemporary forms of presentation (Promotion) for continuing relevance.

Secretariat and instituted the study of folklore at the university.

Delivering the keynote address, Otunba Segun Runsewe, Director-General, National Council for Arts and Culture (NCAC) said that

Dr. Bukar Usman

According to Otunba Runsewe, the NCAC has consistently meshed diverse forms of Nigeria traditional folklore into its various programmes while tweaking, modifying and adopting them for contemporary relevance and generational reliability. Hence, events such as storytelling, moonlight games, dramatization of proverbs and choral music rendition feature as competitive events at the annual National Festival for Arts and Culture (NAFEST).

He reiterated the importance of this kind of events are often specifically targeted at children and youth participants hence answering the requisite skills, values and cultural ethos to the next generation.

The Director General, stressed that to sustain the continuous improvement on the resilience and dynamism of folklore, the council initiated the national culture quiz competition for secondary schools of the federation.

He said that a collection of cultural expressions ranging from dexterity at indigenous languages, understanding of social innuendos, identification of crafts associated with Nigerian creativity, knowledge of tourism sites of the nation, etc were all tested and keenly contested in an atmosphere of cross cultural socialization.

Otunba Runsewe said that the objectives of the programme include; minimizing the infiltration of western values and dire consequences on youths; grooming Nigerian youths by deepening their interests and

The Director General said that NCAC redesigned the various programmes and activities of the council with an eyes on global patronage of our cultural expressions as our dynamic response to globalization.

He acknowledge the fact that NCAC was expanding the frontiers and platforms for international discourse patronage and consumption of Nigeria Folkloric expression.

He said that the impetus that propels our agenda was to expatiate the economics of pleasure, joy and lifestyle to mean the peoples art, their creativity, their craft, their architecture, their fashion, their culture, their cuisines, dances and every form of expression as

Dr. Gidado Bello KumoDirector, Academic Standards For: Executive SecretaryGUIDELINES ON PART-TIME AND SANDWICH PROGRAMMES IN NIGERIAN UNIVERSITIES

Below are guidelines for conducting Part-time and Sandwich programmes in Nigerian universities. All universities currently operating Part-time programmes are expected to comply with the guidelines on programme by programme basis.

Consequently, universities still interested in running Part-time programmes are advised to forward fresh applications to the NUC on programme by programme basis.

This is, however, subject to the readiness of the university to comply with the following extant guidelines on part-time programmes:

1. The admission and graduation requirements, Staffing, Library and physical facilities requirements must be in line with the Benchmark Minimum Academic Standards (BMAS) for the various full-time academic programmes;
2. For a programme to be eligible to run on part-time basis, the approved full-time equivalent must be available in the university, must have earned full accreditation and must be run within approved campuses;
3. The enrolment into part-time programmes must not exceed 20% of total students' population in the programme;
4. The minimum duration of the part-time programmes must be 150% of the approved duration of the Full-Time equivalent;
5. Approval shall not be granted for part-time programmes in Environmental Sciences, Engineering/Technology, Law, Medicine/Medical Sciences, Pharmacy /Pharmaceutical Sciences, Dentistry; and Veterinary Science;
6. All admissions into part-time programmes must be through the Joint Admissions and Matriculation Board (JAMB). Part-time programmes must be run within approved campuses of universities where the human and material resources for the teaching of the programmes are domiciled, i.e. on the main campus of the university;
7. Part-time programmes shall be subjected to the NUC accreditation assessment upon maturity of the programme;
8. For any programme to be eligible for part-time mode, it must have produced two (2) sets of graduates and satisfied the Resource Verification Requirements.
9. Commencement of a part-time programme MUST be subject to NUC's approval. Approval of commencement of all parttime programmes must be obtained.

The National Universities Commission shall not hesitate to apply appropriate sanctions on any university which violates any of the stipulated Guidelines on Part-Time and Sandwich Programmes.

List of Universities with Approved Postgraduate Programmes

The National Universities Commission (NUC) has observed with great concern that some Nigerian universities are running unapproved postgraduate programmes, leading to the award of Masters and PhD degrees. The Commission has also observed that some Parastatals and Institutes are awarding these same Postgraduate degrees, either on their own or through unapproved affiliations with Nigerian and foreign Universities. Such practices are not only unethical, but also antithetical to time-tested quality assurance best practices. The qualifications/awards resulting therefrom are not recognized. The Commission hereby notifies the general public that only the following universities have approval to offer postgraduate programmes at the Masters' and Ph.D levels in Nigeria, as of 30th July, 2012:
